

MTV and CBS need to be punished for their rude and disgusting programming they call television. They have consistently pushed sexuallity on younger and younger children, this needs to be stopped. Our children are our future, they need a childhood without sex. Next time you see a 10 year old girl in a half top and make-up I guess we can thank MTV and Britney Spears, oh and now Janet and Justin.